

ONLINE WORKSHOP

Becoming-wolves: a collaborative living inquiry workshop through arts-based research

With :

Judit Onsès
(University of Girona)

Ana Rita Teixeira
(Education Institute, Lisbon University)

The aim of this workshop is to explore the entanglements between postqualitative research and ABR in educational and research context.

We will work with notions of learning through experience (Dewey, 1997), learning in the making (Ellsworth, 2005), and embodied experiences in learning (Ellingson, 2017; Ellsworth, 2005), focused on the pedagogical implications of start to walk athwart a sensory and bodily experience (Hegna & Ørbæk, 2021).
